

Insightlancer

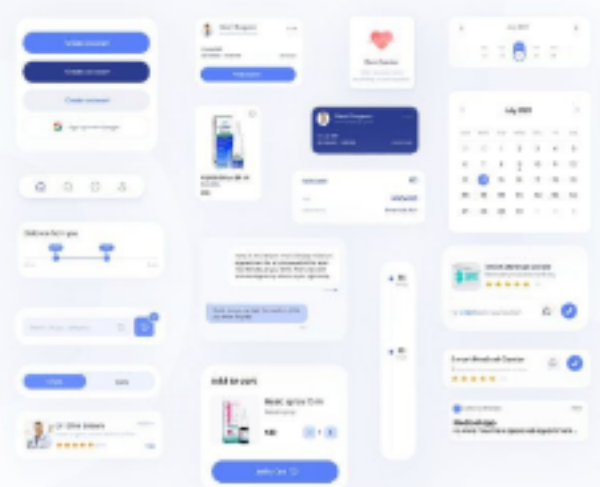

Color palette

The color palette is a key element of the design. It defines the visual identity of the application and ensures consistency across all screens.

Components library

The components library is a collection of reusable UI elements that can be used to build the application.

#EAF0F7

#7FADE0

#2265A2

#062654

